Prot. No. 67

To Whom it May Concern

Subject: Official Invitation to “Agriculture Days Fair”, 28-30 April 2026, Lushnje

Dear Madam/Sir,

Iceberg Exhibitions is pleased to announce the fifth edition of Agriculture Days Fair, taking place on 28–30 April in Lushnje. We kindly invite your institution to share this information with all relevant stakeholders, including Albanian embassies across Europe and beyond, and to encourage their support in promoting the fair to interested parties in this key industry event.

The fair brings together farmers, distributors, institutions, and key players from the agricultural sector, offering a practical setting to present products, technologies, and services, and to build direct B2B connections.

Why exhibit at Agriculture Days 2026:

- Direct access to farmers, distributors, and agricultural companies in the country’s most active agricultural region
- Real opportunities for B2B contacts and business discussions with local and international participants
- Strong visibility among a focused, professional audience
- Direct feedback on products and solutions from end users and sector professionals
- Insight into current trends, technologies, and policies shaping the agricultural sector

We would greatly appreciate your support in disseminating this invitation to relevant stakeholders and encouraging their participation. For further details, please find attached the event brochure.

For any inquiries or assistance, please contact our Sales Director, Mr. Arben Oshafi, at +355 69 406 3909 or arben.oshafi@icebergexhibitions.com.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Enejda Sheku
